AT the Court at Kenſington, the 16th Day of October, 1751.

PRESENT,

The King's moſt Excellent Majeſty in Council.

WHEREAS Information hath been given to his Majeſty at this Board, That the Journeymen Taylors in and about London, having refuſed to work for the Maſter Taylors on the Terms required by Act of Parliament, the ſaid Maſter Taylors had made Application to the Juſtices of the Peace for the County of Middleſex, at their General Quarter Seſſions held at Hicks's Hall on the 11th of July laſt, to alter the Wages of the ſaid Journeymen, in ſuch Manner as the ſaid Court ſhould think juſt and reaſonable, (they having Power by Law ſo to do;) And that thereupon the Wages of the ſaid Journeymen were ordered to be encreaſed, and both Sides acquieſced therein, and ſeemed to be well ſatisfied therewith; yet that many of the ſaid Journeymen do now again refuſe to work for the Wages thereby ſettled and allowed; and great Numbers of them have entered into a Combination, not only not to work for the ſaid encreaſed Wages, but alſo by Force and Violence deter others who are willing to comply therewith, from working; That they are a numerous Body, and have committed many Riots, Tumults, and Outrages; and ſome of them have ſent Letters to the Maſter Taylors, threatning to murder them and fire their Houſes in caſe they would not comply with their illegal Demands, and have actually aſſaulted, beaten, and abuſed ſome of them, to the great Terror of his Majeſty's faithful and loyal Subjects.—His Majeſty taking the ſame into his Royal Conſideration, and thinking it proper for the Preſervation of the Peace, that an immediate Stop ſhould be put to ſuch unlawful Proceedings and Combinations, doth therefore, with the Advice of his Privy Council, hereby order, require and command all his Majeſty's Juſtices of the Peace, Sheriffs, Under-Sheriffs, and all other Civil Magiſtrates whatſoever, to uſe their utmoſt Endeavours to carry into Execution the Act of Parliament paſſed in the Seventh Year of his late Majeſty King George the Firſt, For the Regulation of the Journeymen Taylors within the Weekly Bills of Mortality; as likewiſe all the ſeveral other Laws that have been heretofore made, and are now in Force againſt unlawful Combinations of Workmen, Riots, and Tumults; and alſo againſt ſending threatning Letters; his Majeſty being reſolved to ſuppreſs all ſuch Practices by a moſt ſtrict and exemplary Puniſhment of the Offenders.—And whereas the ſending threatning Letters without any Name, or with fictitious Names ſubſcribed thereto, demanding Money, or any other valuable Thing, is by an Act of Parliament of the Ninth Year of his late Majeſty King George the Firſt, declared to be Felony without Benefit of Clergy; his Majeſty is therefore pleaſed for the Encouragement of all Perſons to be diligent and induſtrious in their Endeavours to make Diſcovery of any Perſon or Perſons who knowingly ſent any of the threatning Letters to the Maſter Taylors as aforementioned, hereby to promiſe and declare, That there ſhall be paid to any Perſon or Perſons, who ſhall within Twelve Months from this Time, diſcover and apprehend any Perſon or Perſons who knowingly ſent any of the threatning Letters as aforeſaid, ſo as he or they ſhall be convicted thereof, the Sum of Fifty Pounds a Piece for each Perſon ſo convicted: And his Majeſty hath given the neceſſary Orders to the Lords Commiſſioners of his Treaſury, for the Payment of the ſaid Rewards accordingly. And his Majeſty does hereby command the reſpective Juſtices of the Peace, and other Magiſtrates, that they do from Time to Time tranſmit an exact Account of what they ſhall do, purſuant to this his Majeſty's Order, to one of his Majeſty's Principal Secretaries of State.
